

With over 900 member businesses representing various industries there is a wealth of diverse knowledge in this Chamber community. We would like to create a library of information for members to share their thoughts & ideas.

We need YOU to share YOUR expertise. Become a contributor to The Chamber Blog!

WHAT WE ARE LOOKING FOR...

- ⇒ Engaging, informative & thoughtful content about business services, solutions, tools or advice
- ⇒ Actionable takeaways for the reader
- ⇒ Articles that will provoke conversations
- ⇒ The article should not be a sales pitch for you or your business
- ⇒ Articles should be between 500 - 800 words
- ⇒ Topics to consider: Career and leadership development, sales, marketing, strategy, creativity, technology, innovation, networking ...just to name a few! The topics are endless!

HOW TO SUBMIT A POST...

- ⇒ Send article to karen@jtownchamber.com. You can send a short pitch prior to submitting the article.
- ⇒ Include one photo, your name, company name and contact information

Please note that all submissions are subject to review, and not all articles will be accepted to publish on The Chamber's website. If the article is approved to publish it will be posted as the schedule permits.

Blog post will be FREE for members to submit.

If you would like to create an advertisement for your organization at the bottom of the article with links to your website or additional articles you've published you can do so for $25.
